

PANEL II –
What s the perspective and role of Developing Countries Governments on VSS to influence/promote/fight against?

The Mexican Case

Dr. Jorge Antonio Pérez Pineda
Universidad Anáhuac México

Brasilia May 31st 2017

Mapping of local actors

Private and Civil Society

concamín

IDEA RSE
CENTRO PARA LA RESPONSABILIDAD
Y SUSTENTABILIDAD DE LA EMPRESA

Five working groups with relevant local issues such as:

- 1-Renewable energy and Energy efficiency (Market of certificates of clean energy)
- 2- Productive Sustainable Chains (The world Environment Center)
- 3- Sustainable Cities (search certificate on Net Zero Energy Building NZEB)
- 4- Sustainable Use of Water
- 5- Sustainable food (local government)

Three specific projects:

- 1- AMEBIN- Mexican Alliance for Business and Biodiversity-
- 2- GEI programme México (Greenhouse Gas Effect)
- 3- Mexico NAMAS Facility (Nationally Appropriate Mitigation Actions – COP 13):

Public Actors

National Institute for Woman (INMUJERES) + National Council to Prevent Discrimination (CONAPRED) + STPS

International, multilateral and bilateral actors

Red México

WORLD
RESOURCES
INSTITUTE

THANK YOU

GRACIAS

OBRIGADO

Dr. Jorge A. Pérez Pineda:

japerpe@yahoo.com / Twitter: @JorgeAPerezP